WORKSHOPS

Pre-Conference Workshops
Thursday, May 24, 9AM—1PM

1. Nick Campion: The Writing of Heaven
Examine traditions and practices from around the world and explore theories of how astrology works, calendar rituals and sacred architecture.

2. Jeff Jawer: Transforming the Astrologer to Transform the World
Techniques to transcend the limits of self-labeling with astrology, the trap that inhibits growth and reduces astrology’s effectiveness as a tool for change.

3. Bill Meridian: Working with Natal Eclipse Paths
Review in detail how to determine the proper eclipse path, what the path means for you; how to time eclipses, and the path and your A*C*G map.

4. Ray Merriman: Integrating Financial Astrology Timing Techniques to Forecast Trading Opportunities
Apply the timing insights of financial astrology to cycle theories in order to identify optimal trading situations.

5. Melanie Reinhart: The Four Angles: Structure, Purpose, and Containers of Incarnation
The angles anchor the life mandala and describe our orientation in time and space, providing symbolic material for approaching significant life questions.

6. Gayatri Devi Vasudev: Tips on Predictive Vedic Astrology
Learn how Vedic astrologers evaluate and release the predictive power inherent with the Moon.

Post-Conference Workshops
Wednesday, May 30, 10AM—Noon & 2—4PM

7. Bernadette Brady: Rethinking Aspects
This workshop combines medieval and modern aspect theory to present a fresh approach to the geometry of our charts.

8. Steven Forrest: Lunar Phases
Based on “The Book of the Moon,” we will introduce an eight-phase interpretation of the lunar cycle based on the pagan calendar of solstices, equinoxes, and cross-quarter days.

9. Robert Hand: Dealing with Difficult Transits and Chart Combinations
Learn strategies and concrete behavioral suggestions for helping clients overcome difficult transits and chart combinations.

10. Deborah Houlding: The Horary Consultation
Horary Astrology has a rightful place in every astrologer’s practice, being one of the most incisive techniques for offering guidance through problems and crises.

11. Richard Tarnas: The History of Rock and Roll
The history of rock and roll represents one of the great creative explosions of the twentieth century, and is a cornucopia of illuminating astrological paradigm cases.
